Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Game of Lawn Bowls as Played Under the Code of Rules of the Scottish Bowling Association, of Glasgow, Scotland The rapidity with which we Americans are rivaling our British friends in their love of national sports and pastimes, especially in the arena of sports which men and women of leisure, and of education and refinement can take part, alike as participants as well as spectators, is remarkable. The fact is we are just rushing things in our determined efforts to outdo the Britishers in their great specialty of field sports; and our success has been decidedly gratifying up to date. Moreover, everything in the line of sports, which we Yanks take up, we improve upon in one respect or another. About the first thing we do, in this direction, when we adopt a British game new to us, is to improve its playing code of rules through the medium of a National Association. For more than a century past, English cricketers have submitted to the dictates of a single club - the Marylebone Club...
