

The Odyssey of Izzy (Paperback)

By Eva Murray

Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Val Sherer (illustrator). 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Izzy O Hara, a loveable misfit, as wily, hapless and tender as Moll Flanders, suffers a nervous tic that s twice misdiagnosed as S.A.D. When she thinks she sees her estranged brother Tommy on her smoke break in downtown San Francisco, she embarks on an odyssey that takes her into her past, the history of American punk rock, and across the American West. She s not sure if it was Tommy, who ran off with a rockabilly band in the Eighties, or was it Ray Z. Omaha of the Twelve Steppers, the singer he mimicked? Is it her vision and everybody looks like somebody else, or is she just S.A.D.? Then those pesky calls from the Governor begin. Time to move to another big city. In Chicago, her luck is double-edged: She is still being followed, yet she herself follows Ray Z. Omaha and his band to solve the mystery of Tommy. But one too many rough nights find her on the run again, this time back home to Nebraska, where she thinks she begins...
