V4 2009r OCLC Number: (OCoLC)730502111 Excerpt: . . . 11 By participating in the Department of Veterans Affairs Vocational Rehabilitation and Employment Program, I was able to receive the support and financial assist-ance needed to achieve a dream - earning an MBA and an MPA (Master in Public Administration) from Harvard University. I can personally attest to the success that is possible when Veterans and transitioning servicemembers have the benefit of a committed Federal agency and its staff to assist them. I continued a career of public service as a White House Fellow, serving as a Spe-cial Assistant to the U. S. Secretary of Commerce, and then as a Fulbright Fellow in Singapore. Afterwards, I had the privilege of serving as the Deputy Director for Hawaiiis Department of Business, Economic Development and Tourism, a position equivalent to Deputy Secretary of Commerce. Most recently, I was a Leadership Consultant with McKinsey and Company in Asia and helped organizations develop their human talent and performance potential. Since my accident, Ive also...
