By MR Cecil L Neff Jr

Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Beth is a drama built around the fraud and failure of many savings and loans in the mid-1980 s. David is a successful south Florida real estate broker. Beth is a legal aid who comes into his life and they become lovers. They plan to be married but the Viet Nam conflict and David s draft notice interrupts their plans. During a conflict, David is shot several times and reported as dead. Beth tries to recover her life and marries another. David returns to south Florida after many years in a Vietnamese prison and for a flash, their love is rekindled. However, neither can live with adultery and guilt, so David leaves Florida. He gives up all that was once his life and floats around the country in an attempt to escape the inner pain. His agony finds outlet in writing and singing blues and folk music. His new musician lifestyle becomes the force which gets him through the days but musicians are not notoriously wealthy and prosperous. His vagabond life carries him to all parts of the...
