The Synod was thus opened on April 9, 1438, being Wednesday in Holy Week, with The Synod Hymns, Prayers, and Addresses, but with Aprifg out any public Celebration of the Liturgy. r438-The Preliminaries having been thus disposed of, and Easter being passed, the Latins were anxious to begin with the main question at issue; but the Greeks urged that the majority of the Western Bishops were still at Basel, and wished to await their arrival. They agreed however, that, in the meantime, selected advocates, twelve from each side, should discuss the question of Purgatory and other subjects in which the Churches differed. These discussions lasted from June 4 to July 17....
