Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This early work by Robert Barr was originally published in 1896 and we are now republishing it with a brand new introductory biography. The short story The Bromley Gibberts Story tells the reader of an author planning a murder rampage, who calmly describes its details to an editor beforehand. Robert Barr was born on 16th September 1849 in Glasgow, Scotland, but he and his parents emigrated to Upper Canada when he was just four years old. He attended Toronto Normal School to train as a teacher and this career path led him to become headmaster of the Central School of Windsor, Ontario. During his time as a headteacher he began to contribute short stories to the Detroit Free Press, a publication for whom he left the teaching profession to become a staff member in 1876. He wrote for them under the pseudonym Luke Sharp, a name he found amusing on a sign reading Luke Sharpe, Undertaker that he used to pass on his daily commute to work. He eventually rose to the position of news editor at...
