Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Home Counties Magazine, Vol. 1: Devoted to the Topography of London, Middlesex, Essex, Herts, Bucks, Surrey and Kent It is to the reader in Essex, Buckinghamshire, Berkshire, Kent and Surrey, that I chiefly address these words; our supporters in London, Middlesex and Hertfordshire, know pretty well the lines which will be followed by the Home Counties Magazine - namely, those on which Middlesex and Hertfordshire Notes and Queries has been conducted since 1895. To the reader in the five counties first mentioned - the new area we are embracing - I would, then, say that I desire to make the Home Counties Magazine a useful and popular topographical publication. Topography is a very comprehensive word, and I use it in its most catholic sense. Particularly do I ask that scraps of local information, such as we are all constantly lighting upon, and which are as constantly lost for lack of a suitable place of deposit, may be sent to the new magazine. I also ask that its pages may be used as a medium...
